Greetings D29! Hope everyone had a nice and safe 3 day weekend. Well not a whole lot to report. We were able to get our belongings out of the Campfire Building August 25th and moved them into a storage facility. I would like to thank Mike A., Teresa L., and Don M. for all there hard work to help make it happen. We really haven't had any luck on finding a new location as of yet. Mike A. and I looked a 20x40 storage unit that would accommodate our needs. However the monthly cost @ $500.00 seemed to be a bit high. We will discuss at the September meeting and see what the rest of the district thoughts are. But seriously, the big question is, "Is $500.00 something that our district could afford?" We had been very fortunate in years past for the $100.00 donation we were paying at the Campfire Building, it maybe a challenge to find another facility that will accommodate our needs on monthly basis for that cost. So in the mean time, we will continue to meet on the 2nd Tuesday of the month 6:30pm @ the Central Services Office in Tacoma until future notice. But please remember any and all suggestions are welcome on any leads you members may have for us to go and look at the possibilities so that we can get back to the Puyallup area soon. Who knows, maybe after a few months at the CSO, we might just decide that it really isn't all not that inconvenient after all.

I have inquired with the Area Alternate Chair on registration for the Assembly and our District has done a great job at responding to the early registration. So far, there are 20 registered members attending. Please remember the cut off for registration is September 17th. If you want to guarantee a seat at the D29 tables you must have your registration in by the 17th of September or you will have a chair along the wall somewhere. It just makes it nicer when everyone turns the registration in on time so we may participate as a whole instead of having to be separated by distance. I am in hopes that you GSR's are doing your job with your home group and preparing to carry a informed group conscience to the Assembly.

This article will be circulated via email prior to hard copies being available and I just want to remind everyone again that at our September 14th meeting we will be holding our District elections for the 2011-2012 rotation for DCM, Alt DCM, Treasurer and Alt Treasurer. So please, if you have been looking for somewhere to get active in service, the district will be in need of several trusted servant positions. The new DCM and Alt DCM would love to hear from volunteers as they prepare to select the new District chairs for the standing committees. Again, I am attaching the District Policy #8 for participation in elections.

8. All past and present GSR's, District Treasurers, Alternate District Treasurers, Alternate DCM's, appointed District Trusted Servants, and past DCM's are eligible to be elected DCM, Alternate DCM, Treasurer, or Alternate Treasurer. (Amended 4/06) (Amended 8/08 to include Alternate Treasurer.)

The policy is only for the election process. If you are not interested in any of the upper 4 positions and would like to just make yourself available as a trusted servant for one of the committees, please don't be shy and wait. There are many of us still out their suffering that need us to stay in "ACTION" and be of service.

Thought for the Month:

Defeat may serve as well as victory
To shake the soul and let the glory out.

--Edwin Markham

So life has given us some dents. So what? Dents are necessary, besides being unavoidable and painful. Each dent is a part of the process that enables us to embrace life as a creative experience and to see the world in a new way, a way of compassion and understanding. Recovery is not a matter of escaping further blows or of disguising the dents we already have. It's a matter of understanding what the dents mean and how we can work with them.

Dents are neither soft spots in our characters that should make us ashamed nor saber scars that should make us proud. They are simply evidence that we have been alive for a while. Recovery offers us the chance to learn from our dents, to accept them as new spaces for growth. When we decide to see our dents as opportunities gained rather than opportunities lost, we stand much taller in our own eyes and in the eyes of others.

DISTRICT 29 TRUSTED SERVANTS

ALTERNATE DCM

Hello to all of you in Dist. 29 land! We moved everything out of our old District office; thank you to those who helped. We need to find a reasonably priced building, so all of you out there...start looking; after all, we are the action District. Speaking of action, your Gratitude Banquet committee is awesome! The flyers are out, and the tickets are on sale; they're only $17.00 and you'll get a tour of some of the LeMay family vintage cars, an excellent meal (remember how good last year's food was), a 1950's to 1960's atmosphere, good speakers (AA and Al- anon), good music and a whole lot of fellowship. It's a sock hop so let's dress up for the occasion and plan to have fun. I'm going to dress as a...nope, can't tell you...so see you all there. Let's have our home groups put together a basket for our sweepstakes drawing. I almost forgot, we sure could use some of you ladies on the committee; it's every Thursday night at 5:30 at Applinis Two, call me (Mike 253-228-7432) for directions, if needed.

God bless each and every one of you; thank you all for allowing me to serve as your Alt. DCM!

With Love in Service,

Mike Archer,
Alt. DCM

TREASURER

SECRETARY

Hello everyone. District 29 is doing well. We have had a busy summer and it looks like the rest of the year will be no different. Let's start with the biggest issue on the docket in August, we have been asked to leave building we have shared with the Campfire girls for a long time. They are expanding their use of the facility and said they no longer have room to share with us. We will be meeting at the Central Service Office beginning with our September 14 meeting and will continue to meet there until we find a new facility.

On a lighter note, we have wonderful news regarding our annual Gratitude Banquet. It will be held on November 6 at the Historic Marymount Academy's newly renovated gymnasium which is the home of LeMay car collection. It will be a rocking 50's & 60's theme with period cars on display to enhance the experience. I, for one, will be there hopefully dressed like Betty Rizzo in Grease.

Speaking of our new Gratitude Banquet location, a motion was brought from Firgrove to suspend our Soldiers Home rent donation that is included in our district policies because we have not held any events at that location this year. The motion was passed by a vote of 14 yes and 0 no. Furthermore, we will be looking at changing the policy permanently because there are no events planned there in the future.

By the time you read this we will have had our elections. Make sure you go to your next business meeting to find out who your 2011-2012 DCM, Alt. DCM, Treasurer and Alt. Treasurer are. Birthdays for August were:

Dave	5 years
Larry	28 years

Happy birthday to everyone. Remember we do this deal one day at a time so keep coming back it works if you work it!

In closing, I would just like to give the district a couple of quotes from the Big Book to use during this time of transition.

Every day is a day when we must carry the vision of God's will into all of our activities. "How can I best serve Thee-Thy will (not mine) be done." Alcoholics Anonymous, Third Edition, page 85

And we have ceased fighting anything or anyone-even alcohol. For by this time sanity will have returned. Alcoholics Anonymous, Third Edition, page 84

ARCHIVES

This past month has been pretty busy with moving our archives from the Campfire Girls location to the new storage place on South Hill. Thanks to Teresa M. (DCM), Mike A. (Alt. DCM) and Don (Corrections Alt. chair) the move went very smoothly.

I took a trip down to Tigard, Oregon, to attend an Archives Workshop where I learned some key techniques to preserve and conserve various types of documents that are in our archives. I received several CDs with historical information about the founders and some of the relevant books and documents that assisted Bill W. and Bob S. in creating the Alcoholics Anonymous program. I look forward to assembling them for a display for our district. I also received a copy of the 75th anniversary of AA in Bellevue. It is a slide show that I hope to be able to present at the Dist. 29

Gratitude Banquet in November. Having said this, if anyone has access to a document camera that can be hooked up to a laptop, please let me know.

I plan to attend the 3rd Legacy presentation at the Loft on Sat., Sept. 11th.

Thank you for this opportunity to serve Dist. 29 and to learn more about how to preserve our history as a district and as a way of life through the AA program.

In love and service,
Teresa L.

REGISTRAR

Forgiveness says, "It was wrong, it mattered, and I release you." As Neil Anderson has written, "Don't wait to forgive until you feel like forgiving; you will never get there. Feelings take time to heal after the choice to forgive is made."

I experienced another first as your Registrar. Phil from the Above Ground Group sent me his information via email. Isn't that the way it always works out? As we head into the home stretch of this rotation, things are starting to click with the members. Awesome!!

So, for those groups that have rotations this fall – please fill out the "Change Form" and give it to me or leave it in the Registrar folder. I would like to have as many positions corrected before I hand this off to the next registrar.

If you have the electronic version of the "Change Form", then fill it out and send it to me at D29Registrar@comcast.net. If you do not have the form and need to make changes in your group's leadership information, then email me and I will send you the form. How cool is that!

DISTRICT 29 TRUSTED SERVANTS

Thanks to each of you for my sobriety and this opportunity to serve...my sobriety depends upon it! Well...that's all for now.

God bless you in your recovery and make it a awesome autumn!

COOPERATION WITH THE PROFFESIONAL COMMUNITY

The committee met on August 12 with one new volunteer, Sally S. from the Brunch Bunch. A list of open meetings in the district will be prepared and the A.A. GSO web site will be explored for the availability of material to be distributed.

The September committee meeting will be held on September 16 at 11620 98th Ave. E., on South Hill. New committee members are always welcome. For information, e-mail brunchbunch@hotmail.com.

Into Action

The Freedom To Change Or Not

Reprinted with permission;
From the February 2001 edition of the A.A. Grapevine Magazine.

I used to wonder how long it would take to be rid of my character defects. I remember complaining to my sponsor about the pain and suffering they still caused after being sober for several years, and the fact that some of them seemed to be as bad as ever. What would it take to be rid of these negative emotional ties to the past? Would I have to drink again and get a good case of the jitters, like they talk about in the book, or was I going to straighten out some day?

This weighed heavily on me, so I asked my sponsor what I should do. He said, "I have good news and bad news." Whenever he uses that phrase, I want to turn invisible. I asked him for the bad news first. He said the bad news is, that the day we put you in the ground, (providing you stay sober that long) you will be the same person you were the day you came here. The good news is, you will enjoy that a lot less. Upset with this statement, I asked him to explain. He went on to say that like most people, alcoholics have the usual set of character defects which we have honed to a razor's edge, and are about the business of using them to cut our lives to ribbons. Just because we get sober does not mean that these tendencies will disappear, but quite the contrary, they become more noticeable than ever, because when we shed light on our defects they become easier to see and more difficult to practice.

It turns out that the reason I still revert back to my old ways is because I still value them. As much as I hate to admit it, it's true. Anger, selfishness, jealousy and the rest lie just beneath the surface, and one of the best things I can do about that is to be honest with myself, and remain aware that they are ever present and patient. Probably, the most glaring example of this is my use of anger to control others. When someone gets too close and threatens to expose the truth about me, I throw up my wall of anger to protect my secrets. The most painful of which, is the fear that I'm not good enough to be accepted or loved.

Step six tells me that some of my character defects may be lifted right out of me as the desire to drink was, but with regards to the rest, I will have to be content with patient improvement. As we've all heard, alcoholism will never turn into alcoholism. Therefore, the old adage that says when we forget our history, we are sure to repeat it, rings true for me today.

When I took inventory, my life lay before me. When I looked at the nature of my wrongs, it became obvious that the same behaviors produced the same results. So it would be fair to say that everything brings forth its own kind. For example, anger brings forth anger, it never brings forth happiness. The same is true with love, it never brings forth hate, it can only bring forth its own kind. Knowing this truth is a real wake up call, because when I look around at what I've created, be it good or bad; I'm forced to take responsibility. If my life is full of happiness and joy, then it means that I value happiness and joy, and to me, anger and depression are valueless. At first I could not accept this simple truth because it was too easy, and I've been taught that anything worth while is hard. I mean if it were that easy then anyone could have it, and so it is.

The next question was, how could I bring about this change, when all I've known is chaos? Experience has shown that when I combine one thought with another thought, this may produce a headache, on the other hand, when I combine thought with action, this will always produce a result. The paradox that says I have to give it away to keep it is true enough, however it is also true that I must give it away to acquire it in the first place. When I give love, only then can I experience love, consequently, the more I give, the more I have. Therefore, if I want to experience love and happiness in my life, I must be willing to extend this to others. The old tape that says I must receive love to have love is false. The truth is that I must give love so that I may truly experience it. God makes that possible.

I find it amazing, how capable I am of overlooking the obvious. I mean this is what the literature has been telling me all along. I guess my receiver was off the hook, or maybe I just had to hear the message on a different frequency. Whatever the case may be, I have gained much freedom from this basic knowledge, and just as I have the freedom to use the God of my understanding or not, I have that same freedom to practice my character defects or not. God also makes that possible.

So it would seem that I am a product of my actions, more than my thoughts, and through action I possess the ability to cause change in my life.

ORTING FIRESIDE

What an awesome birthday night we had in August! A big thank you to Phil M., our speaker from the Above Ground group. In addition to sharing his experience, strength and hope, Phil had some really inspirational things to say that I can use in my everyday life! Just goes to show that I am still writing things down that people say in meetings after being in this wonderful Program for some time!

We are back inside again and are holding our own with attendance. Thursdays could use some support, but other than that, a lot of regulars show up who do not call Orting Fireside their home group. It has also been great to see a lot of newer people stick around. For me, seeing people come in and keep coming back is one of the gifts I receive. To see their growth from month to month is terrific!

Thank you!

STRAIGHT SHOOTERS GROUP

Greetings from the Straight Shooters group of Alcoholics Anonymous! August was a very enjoyable month for us, as we had really great weather for our fireside meetings at the Sumner Sportsman Club. We are always pleased to see so many new faces at our meetings and to have some new home-group members as well. Also, our soon to be, world famous, Straight Shooters potluck was another big success. Thanks to all whom participated and shared with us some of their most excellent vittles! Our potluck is held the 2nd Monday of the month, this month it will be Sep. 13th. Come join us and bring some good "home-cooked" food. We have been cooking hot dogs and marshmallows at almost every other meeting during the month, and as always, cake on B-Day night. We look forward to your sharing of your experience, strength and hope. Here are the birthdays we've celebrated for the month of Aug:

John	24hrs
Christina	2 months
Jeanette	3 months
Bluie	3 months
David	4 months
Kyle	6 months
Danyelle	7 months
Jeff	9 months
Lee	4 years!
David	12 years!! (July)

TRUSTED SERVANTS

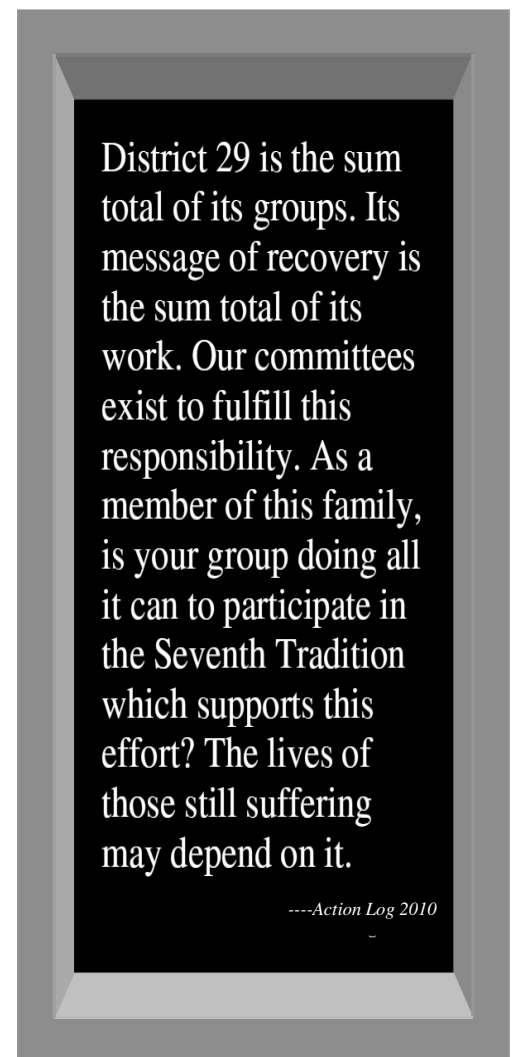

Hello from Trusted Servants. Our regular meeting is on Monday nights, 7:30 pm at the Sumner Presbyterian Church on Washington Street. Our business meetings are on the third Monday of the month and Birthday nights are celebrated on the last Monday of the month. Birthdays for the month of August were:

Sally P.	1 month
Donna F.	2 months
Katrina L.	3 months
Nat B.	4 months
Nancy R.	5 months
Julie C.	7 months

Tara S.	8 months
Joey	9 months
Phil	18 months
Rick A.	9 years
Lisa C.	12 years

Our annual picnic was a huge success and lots of fun. We have an extra business meeting scheduled to study and vote on the motions for the Assembly coming up in October. Our GSR, Brad S. will be attending the assembly. This month we picked Joey from our hat as our speaker. A few new service positions have been filled: Nancy R. will be the new "chip chick" and Mary will chair the meetings for the next six months. All's good at Trusted Servants. If you are looking to find more sobriety, this is definitely an ACTION group and oh, by the way we are not a glum lot.

Love without conditions,
Karen E., Secretary

A Word From Margie

She was such a nice girl.

I only have a couple of really big fears. The first one is waking up one day and finding my picture on the People of Wal-mart website. (I knew I shouldn't have stumbled out of the house at 3:00 am wearing those old zebra print leggings and my slippers that are in the shape of hotdogs all because I "needed" some Cherry Garcia ice-cream, dammit.) The other fear is: if I died tomorrow, what would people say about me at my funeral? Seriously, I could slam my head on the shelf above the cat box, choke on a chicken wing, or get pushed in front of an oncoming bus. (The last one is more likely seeing as how in the last month alone, someone has threatened that very thing. Twice.)

I would like for people to say things like, "She was so kind and loving." She was always there when you needed her." I guess that means I actually have to act in a kind, loving manner and be available when I'm needed. I can do that. Not all the time maybe, but more so than I used to. Do I want to be all these wonderful things just so people will say nice things about me when I'm gone? A little bit, sure. But mostly because it's probably the right thing to do and I am surrounded by people in AA who are kind, loving, and available when I need them. Which sometimes, is more than I deserve.

So for now, if I die tomorrow (and people, if I get hit by a bus; it was NOT an accident and you'll need to get the authorities involved) I'm almost positive there'll be a couple of good things said, along with something like, "The only thing she ever brought to a potluck was a cold." "Honey, wasn't that our old neighbor who puked in the birdbath when she was drunk?" And of course, "Didn't I just see her picture on the People of Wal-mart website?" I beg of you, don't believe everything you hear.
